QUALIFICATION TEST PLAN and REPORT (QTP and QTR)

The supplier shall submit a Qualification Test Plan (QTP) and a Qualification Test Report (QTR) for Caton Connector approval. The QTP shall be submitted prior to the start of Qualification. The Supplier and Caton Connector's approval shall be contained in documented on the QTP and QTR documents. The name and signature of the Supplier's Design Engineer and Quality Engineer as well as the approving Caton Connector Design Engineer and Quality Engineer are required for approval. All supporting documents shall be referenced in the Qualification Test documentation.

The Qualification Test Report (QTR) shall be approved prior to the start of production.

No Shipment of procured material can be made without a Caton Connector approved QTP and a QTR. All testing, data and inspections must meet and be verified to the Technical Data Package & applicable MIL Specs. Production runs initiated prior to acceptance of the QTR by Caton Connector will be at the supplier's risk

A supplier who has previously been qualified and has not continuously produced the item specified on this purchase order within the past twenty-four months, unless otherwise specified, shall notify Caton Connector with any QTP or QTR changes prior to acceptance of a contract. Any major plant rearrangement, relocation, changes in materials, procedures, processes or design after initial qualification approval shall be submitted to Caton Connector for approval prior to initiation of said changes and resumption of production efforts. Caton Connector shall be notified in the event of a failure occurrence during qualification testing. The supplier shall maintain on file a copy of the approved QTP and QTR and qualification coupon(s) for five years from the date of QTR approval.

All correspondence shall be addressed to the Caton Connector Supplier Quality Engineer or Caton Connector buyer whose name is on this purchase order.

This document is an integral part of the contract (purchase order), which calls it out. The revision in effect at the time the purchase order was placed applies.
